

About Us

Wednesday, 24 September 2008

Gilwood Computing Services specialise in delivering and optimising server and application virtualisation solutions. We have significant experience gained over nearly ten years working with a wide range of client sectors.

We work with businesses to develop architectures that deliver improved flexibility, energy efficiency and reduced costs - enabling projects that deliver on consolidation, resilience and remote working.